Why I'm In Love With My Sex Doll Story

She feels so real life like and soft just like a real women, but not the same as having a real woman going down on you until you explode, but a step up from a hand job.

I'm in love with my sex doll because she never talks, she never ages, and she never eats. I saved a lot of money buying my sex doll.

Other reasons why I'm in love with my sex doll. If I want to put it in her ass, I can and she wont say a word about it. If I want to shove it in her mouth, she wont say no, but just lays there and takes it until I explode in her throat. Now where can you find a real woman that will let you do this to her. I'm not saying women wont do these kinds of things, but not after they get older, but young women will do it all. I'm an older guy now who likes to be alone, so a sex doll is the next best thing.

If I'm not happy with my sex doll, I can just put her in the closet until I'm ready for her. I'm not mean, it's just that simple owning a sex doll, you only need her every now and then. This is one of the best parts of owning a sex doll.

I guess there's plenty of down falls, she don't cook, wash clothes, or clean the house, so there are some downers to owning a sex doll.

I can rub her back but she cant rub mine. What a bummer!

We can watch a movie together but she will not laugh at the funny stuff or even know if it's a sad movie or happy movie. What a bummer!

When I go to bed at night, she never keeps me warm, but she doesn't steal the cover, plus she never farts. Wow a plus!

No conversation in the morning over coffee. But, she don't drink coffee so I save there.

I cant be on the porch with her because I would be the talk of the town and I don't mean in a good way. Not all of the world is on board with this sex doll thing yet.

I feel perverted sometimes having a sex doll but what is an older man to do? I'm not young anymore going out to bars to meet women. I don't have that in me anymore and just stay home to myself and my sex doll.

Sex dolls have been a good thing for so many men that are alone and feels like they cant have an out going life anymore because of their age and lack of confidence.

We loose our hair, our teeth, so we where hats, and buy partials, but that wont give you back that confidence you used to have.

I don't feel the same around women as I did when I was younger because all I wanted to do is jump their bones. Now I'm not a hunter anymore, but a week lamb that just wants to stay home, but that alright because my sex doll let's me do anything I want and that is why I'm in love with my sex doll.

Buy one and you'll fall in love, I promise.
